

Prophetic Word by Cindy Jacobs

3/6/11

But I want to give a word to the church and to Terry and Susan: And the Lord would say I am going to release this internet/media anointing. I see this word: Sojourn.tv and God says to you I am going to deliver many from this site for I will anoint the two of you to be apostles of deliverance and inner healing ministries and freedom. Many will be free says the Lord and my eyes have been searching to see who I could use to steward a new move of the Holy Spirit that will go viral. It will go into church after church after church, many will be free that have been crying out for freedom. The truth will set them free says God and I am going to bring those who will help you and I'm going to finance this thing and the Lord shows me that the workbooks not just the study guides, and people will fill them out and that there's going to be websites for this and that God will use this in a great way, there will an apostolic round table, deliverance round table even in this area that will even go worldwide in its scope and its effects says the Lord. Amen. Amen. Anyone agree with that. Any Sojourners.

Roland stand up, anyone on the worship team, I'm going to do it like this because it's faster.

And the Lord would say, will there not be a 24 hour house of prayer from this house? And the Lord says I'm going to whistle and musicians are going to come from the ends of the earth. I'm going to call them into this place and the Lord shows me that there will be like an addition, I don't when this will happen to the church. In fact I see some wings, I see one for deliverance and I see one where people will come and pray and worship. The Lord says, just begin it. Don't try to fill up 24 hours, just begin it. And the Lord says if you'll do it like even noon worship, says the Lord, once a week that people will come and they will come at their lunch hour even as I anointed Jeremiah Lanphier, I'm going to put a mix of marketplace worship and I'm going to bring marketplace leaders in and the Lord says it will be unique in what I will do for I will whistle and the business leaders will come and I will bring the sound of worship even into the marketplace, says the Lord. And God says you have tried to gather people, even the worshippers but it wasn't quite the time but now is the time says the Lord to you, Roland. Now is the time. The Lord says now is the time for this symposium...whoa that was huge. Oh my. Wow, I think some angels just showed up in this room. My. That was very nice. I got the backwash of that myself. Yeah, so receive now that mantle and for miracles. Thank you Lord, the miracle anointing, the miracle mantle, marketplace and miracles and its marrying now. It's marrying now and with this music, these 3 m's God's going to bring it together, so Father I thank you for that anointing and the Lord says I'm going to bring them in and I'm going to bring them in from the mission field, the musician-aries. And I'm going to release an anointing of musician-aries from this house says the Lord. And the Lord says they're going to come, they're going to come from India, they're going to come from China, they're going to come from the middle east, I'm going to whistle for them and they're going to come from Egypt, they're going to come from all the Arabic speaking world and the Lord says find the translators, find the ones, because the Lord says you're going to need translation. And the Lord says, just begin. I'm going to give you a first fruits says the Lord and I'm marrying mission and music for musician-aries and there will be a musician-ary move that comes out of this house, says the Lord. Amen!

And will I not make this house a landing place for angels, says the Lord! For I am opening a gateway to the heavens says the Lord; a portal, a place, where the angels can ascend and descend. Whoa. Yeah, more Lord, more Lord, more Lord. And the Lord says, it's time to enlarge the place of your tent, you tried before but it wasn't the time but now is the time, says the Lord. And if you will do it I will pour new wine into the vision, for this is a day that a page is turning says the Lord. That a page is turning and I'm getting ready to do a new thing, behold I do a new thing, says the Lord, now it shall begin. I'm going to bring those here that have been in a wilderness place and I'm going to pour new wine refreshing upon them. For God says I will make this an oasis of hope and many will come that are hopeless and they're going to find hope poured into them. This will be like hope harbor and many will come anchor here says the Lord. And so God would say, I have caused you to be, it seems, at times as a hidden place but I'm going to take the lid off now says God. And the Lord says, I will bring those young leaders in who have been those who can just strum a guitar, those who were just barely able to play and I will build the studio. The Lord shows me, Terry, there will be the studio and God will do it. He will make His name known from this house. He will make His name famous from this house. He is the great liberator. And the Lord shows me there's some people here and you've been waiting for the Lord to tell you what to do with a certain amount of finances and Lord says you must build a highway of holiness for people to get free through this church. And I will use the funds that you have stored up to help build the studio and invest in the seminars, the freedom seminars and Sojourn.tv. And I'm going to bring that media ministry says the Lord on the web and it will be a highway of freedom. It will be a highway that people will come in and out and many will be free says the Lord. And some of you have had a season of frustration because you've thought, surely you thought there must be more, this is the "more" time. Ah! I rhymed and I did a pun...I never can do that. This is the more time; get it...M-o-o-r-e synonymous with m-o-r-e. More! Hallelujah. Whew. God is getting ready to pour out his spirit. Some of you, I really see a great frustration, but the Lord says, turn that frustration into divine energy, into God's power and you will be healed. You have pressed towards him, you have pushed towards him, but now, what was hard will be easy. For many are in bondage and I have heard their cries wanting to be free from pornography, free from addictions, free from all kinds of sin, but they couldn't counsel it out of them, it has to be cast out. God says I will marry many things here and I will pour in the new wine for deliverance. And what was done in the 80's with Milton Green, and many others, what was tried in this city, the Lord says there is a well of deliverance, and there is a well of freedom and there is something I wanted to do, but Satan came in in that season and closed the well, but I'm getting ready to turn on the spicket! There is going to be a new flow says the Lord. I'm going to do a new thing says God and the Lord says, let me use you and let me use this church to build a highway of deliverance and freedom and holiness. Isaiah 35 says the Lord, I will build a highway to the nations from this place and many will come and you will restore the Tabernacle of David that has fallen down. Acts 15:16 - You will rebuild the Tabernacle of David and I'm going to bring the musician-aries in. The Lord says they're going to come. And God says to you I need a multi-purpose space. I need more room for the vision; I'm going to increase it. And the Lord says; don't think I forgot about that word about the children's revival out of this house either. I have never forgotten says the Lord, for my gifts and my callings are without repentance. And I will still do that and this time I will bring a move of deliverance and the prophetic and the miraculous through the children and your grandchildren of this house, says the Lord. Put your hands together and thank the Lord for that. Amen! There's your roadmap, there's your prophetic word. Somebody stand up and just shout thank God. Hallelujah! Do it Lord! Do it Lord! The new thing, do the new thing! Remember not the former things I'm doing a new thing! Amen. I feel like the very atmosphere shifted. Now you understand that the prophetic word has a second dimension to it and it's the implementation phase...
